

Every Now and Then and More
Really Good Things Happen

Publisher's Note

It's such a lovely treat to work with and co-create with an educator such as Jill Tenkula. Like many of our teacher/author clients, she possesses tremendous heart and compassion for making a lasting difference in the young lives she molds every day.

In her new book series, Happy Kids' Tool Kit, beginning with Every Now and Then and More, she imparts her wisdom in a refreshing and intriguing storytelling format, offering a valuable, yet surprisingly simple and effective tool for other educators, caregivers, and parents alike.

Every Now and Then and More – Really Good Things Happen when we stimulate healthy thought and dialogue with the next generation . . . and that's exactly what this beautiful little book provides.

There are very few things in life as special as having a meaningful conversation with a child; better yet, hearing what that child has to share with you. Kudos to you, Jill, for your sweet and true-to-life stories and your vision for the Happy Kids' Tool Kit.
